

Scholarship winners spotlighted at Buckeye JVS awards assembly

Four scholarship recipients were among those honored at the eighth annual awards assembly in Buckeye Joint Vocational School at New Philadelphia.

Sharon Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Weaver of Millersburg, was awarded the Ohio

Board of Regents Scholarship worth $1,000 a year over four years. She plans to attend Malone College in Canton.

The $1,000 Ben Cookson Scholarship was presented to Elmer Leeper, son of Margaret Ott of Dover. Leeper plans to attend

Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute at Wooster.

The $500 Simon McKnight Memorial Scholarship was awarded to Jon Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson of Dover, and the $500 Tuscarawas County Home Builders Assn. Scholarship went to Jennifer Causby of Sherodsville.

Other scholarship winners recognized were Vince Incarnato, Lisa Wynn, Cora Holcomb and Tracy Hall.

A total of 400 vocational certificates, 32 awards of distinction, 41 perfect attendance awards and eight academic awards were presented. Some 1,200 persons attended the event.

LEEPER

JOHNSON

WEAVER

CAUSBY