

Gridiron predictions

Week 2 of the 2009 football season is at hand, and The Times-Reporter forecasters see Dover and New Philadelphia both coming up victorious in their home openers tonight.

In the battle at Midvale, we all favor Indian Valley to defeat neighboring Claymont.

And we see Ohio State rolling past Navy in the

WEEK 2

Buckeyes' season debut.

There are three 3-2 picks this week, favoring Union Local over Garaway, East Canton over Sandy Valley and Zanesville Rosecrans over Conotton Valley.

Last week saw Hank Keathley and Roger Metzger both compile 14-3 marks while Dave Whitmer and Joe Wright both were 13-4.

This week's guest analyst is Mike Sudduth of Dover. He is vice president of video production for Prestige Creative Marketing in New Philadelphia.

Last week's guest forecaster, Jason Jackson of Dennison, had an 11-6 record.
